What is a Dragon Boat Festival?

Dragon Boat Racing is an ancient Chinese sport that's catching on across the US, as well as internationally, with competitions and cultural festivals held worldwide.

Traditionally, the Dragon Boat Festival is known as Duan Wu Jie (Mandarin) or Tuen Ng (Cantonese) which translates almost literally to "Day of Right mid-day". It is also known as Double Fifth Celebration, the Festival is traditionally celebrated on the fifth day of the fifth month in the lunar calendar. Because of the modernization and the popularity of dragon boating, the Festival is becoming known as the Dragon Boat Festival. The festival has evolved from a cultural community celebration to an international celebration.

Dragon boating is over 2,000 years old and is steeped in tradition. In ancient China, Chu Yuan, a poet, warrior, and loyal aide to the Emperor, fell victim to plots and deception, and fell out of favor with the Court. When the old

Emperor died, Chu Yuan was unjustly banished and wandered the countryside writing poems he hoped would be heard and heeded by the new Emperor. Despondent, he finally threw himself into the Mi Lo River. His devoted followers, learning of his death, beat their paddles on the water and banged drums and gongs to frighten away the fish from Chu Yuan's body. Athletes all over the world still meet to commemorate Yuan's sacrifice for honor and justice.

The sport has grown into an international competitive event, with Dragon Boat Races held around the globe from Hong Kong to Sydney, and San Francisco to London.

The Minocqua Dragon Boat Festival will have over 30 teams this year competing in various divisions.

The Howard Young Foundation thanks you for your participation. Paddles UP! And enjoy this unique experience!

- Each team can have a maximum of 20 paddlers, and at least 1/2 of the paddlers must be female (drummer is not included as a paddler). Each team must have a minimum of 16 paddlers to race, and again at least 1/2 of the paddlers must be female.
- Minimum age for paddlers is 15 years old as of August 18, 2018. Paddlers between the ages of 15 – 18, must have a guardian's signature on the waiver.
